Story angles

1	Highland cattle and fluffy-cow tourism in East Tennessee — A working herd that meets guests every day — feeding, brushing, photographs — an hour from the Smokies.
2	A working farm that is also a wedding venue — Ceremonies and receptions for up to 250 guests on the same ground the cattle graze, with the herd in the frame.
3	Farm-stay hospitality beside a live herd — Overnight stays where the morning view is Highland cows, not a parking lot.
4	A film and photo location with a real farm behind it — Pasture, pond, barns and a working kitchen on one address — see cedarpondfarms.com/film.

Boilerplate (short)

Cedar Pond Farms is a working Highland cattle farm and destination venue in New Market, Tennessee — approximately 30 acres hosting farm stays, fluffy-cow experiences, weddings and events for up to 250 guests, and on-farm filming.
